Caravinsérail is a wine story. The name echoes the caravansary of the desert, a propitious place for travelers to rest, meet and relax in a congenial atmosphere. In partnership with skilled winemakers, Raphaël Trouiller (founder) and Didier Robert (œnologist, manager of the Œnologist Office "ICV" in Beaumes de Venise) produce wines of quality and pleasure from grapes of the South of the Rhone valley and Languedoc terroirs. They range from light and easy wines at a very affordable price, to more elaborate and complex cuvees for special occasions.

Tasting Notes

A clear pale-yellow color with an intense nose of citrus fruit and exotic fruit (pineapple). A very refreshing wine with a pleasant acidity mingling sweet fruit notes and a touch of citrus. A very crisp, light and flavorful modern white wine that will be a delight with all your summer and light dishes or by itself. Serve chilled (9-10° C).
