Tasting notes

A rich, bold, and concentrated Bordeaux from an all-time great vintage. Aromas of black fruit, tobacco, flint, and dark spices burst onto the palate all wrapped around full, velvety tannins. Château Grange-Neuve is the kind of classic, stately, well-balanced Pomerol that made the appellation one of Bordeaux's most admired.

An assertive wine that makes a big impression, it's best enjoyed with your hearty meals over the next 20 years.
